RULES

At the fun trip, Lost in Fun! is expecting the daycare to get the parents to sign a group waiver for their children (found online at lostinfun.com), and turn it in when the daycare arrives. If the parents are coming to Lost in Fun!, they can sign the waiver upon arrival. All the kids will be required to wear socks to play at Lost in Fun!. If a child forgets to bring socks, Lost in Fun! can provide them but the socks will be charged to the daycare.

The daycare employees are responsible to always watch their daycare kids making sure Lost in Fun! rules are followed.

Lost in Fun! accepts credit cards, cash or business checks. No personal checks are accepted. As much as possible, Lost in Fun! will provide a party room to accommodate your daycare children. No food is allowed unless approved by Lost in Fun! following the Health Department rules such as a daycare prepared sack lunch. Lost in Fun! has many pre-ordered menu options for lunch.

PUNCH CARDS CANNOT BE USED FOR ADMISSIONS.
